Background

Spreedly develops, markets and provides to its customers a web-based payments orchestration and tokenization platform, which includes Spreedly's proprietary API integration (collectively, the "Platform"), which enables its customers to validate, tokenize and vault credit cards (and other payment types) and then transact with one or more of the payment gateways that are integrated to the Platform and/or third-party payment method receivers that Spreedly supports, and, where applicable, automatically update expired or lost credit cards (the "Permitted Use"). Customer desires to acquire a subscription to access and use the Platform for the Permitted Use, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein.

Agreement

The Parties agree for themselves, their successors and permitted assigns as follows:

1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following terms will have the meanings set forth below:

1.1. "Agreement" means, collectively, this Enterprise Services Agreement, the Order Form(s), the Statements of Work, the Support Services Terms, and the Data Security Policy, in each case as amended from time-to-time.

1.2. "Card Associations" means MasterCard, VISA, American Express, Discover, JCB or any other credit card brand or payment card network for or through which Spreedly processes payment card transactions.

1.3. "Card Data" means any credit card data uploaded or otherwise received from Customer by or through the Platform for the purposes of being processed within the Platform.

1.4. "Claim" means any claim, suit, action, proceeding, or investigation by a governmental body.

1.5. “Customer Data” means Card Data and any other data or information that is uploaded or otherwise received from Customer by or through the Platform for the purposes of being processed within the Platform.

1.6. “Documentation” means the then-current online, electronic and written user documentation and guides, and instructional videos that Spreadly makes available to Customer at: <https://docs.spreadly.com/>, which describe the functionality, components, features or requirements of the Platform, as Spreadly may update from time-to-time in Spreadly’s discretion.

1.7. “Malicious Code” means any software, hardware or other technology, device or means, including any virus, worm, malware or other malicious computer code, the purpose or effect of which is to permit unauthorized access to, or to destroy, disrupt, disable, distort, or otherwise harm or impede in any manner any (a) computer, software, firmware, hardware, system or network or (b) any application or function of any of the foregoing or the security, integrity, confidentiality or use of any data processed thereby.

1.8. “Initial Order Form” means Order Form #1 executed by Customer and Spreadly concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Agreement.

1.9. “Intellectual Property Rights” means all patent rights, copyright rights, mask work rights, moral rights, rights of publicity, trademark, trade dress and service mark rights, goodwill, trade secret rights and other intellectual property rights as may now exist or hereafter come into existence, and all applications therefore and registrations, renewals and extensions thereof, under the Laws of any state, country, territory or other jurisdiction.

1.10. “Laws” means all laws, directives, rules and regulations.

1.11. “Losses” means any and all losses, damages, liabilities, deficiencies, judgments, settlements, costs and/or expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs).

1.12. “Order Form” means each ordering document which is substantially like the form in Schedule A that is executed by Customer and Spreadly that references this Enterprise Services Agreement. Each Order Form is hereby incorporated into this Agreement by reference, as amended from time-to-time by the Parties.

1.13. “PCI-DSS” means the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard.

1.14. “Permitted Use” has the meaning defined in the Background to this Agreement.

1.15. “Professional Services” means any consulting or professional services listed under a Statement of Work that are not included as part of the Support Services. Professional Services may include training, implementation, and configuration of the Platform.

1.16. “Statement of Work” means a statement of work executed by Customer and Spreadly that references this Enterprise Services Agreement, each of which is hereby incorporated into this Agreement by reference, as amended from time-to-time by the Parties.

2. Provision and Use of the Platform.

2.1. Authorization to Use the Platform. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, Spreadly authorizes Customer, during the Term and on a worldwide non-exclusive and non-transferable (except as permitted in Section 14.5) basis, to access and use the Platform solely for the Permitted Use. Customer acknowledges and agrees that Spreadly is not a payment gateway or merchant account provider and Spreadly does not assume any direct or indirect liability or responsibility for Customer’s agreements with payment gateways or merchant account providers supported on the Platform.

2.2. Lawful Use. Customer will access and use the Platform solely for lawful purposes and will not use it for any fraudulent, illegal or criminal purposes. Customer hereby grants Spreadly authorization to share information with law enforcement about Customer, Customer’s transactions and Customer’s Spreadly account, in each case if Spreadly reasonably suspects that Customer’s use of the Platform has been for an unauthorized, illegal, or criminal purpose. Prior to sharing any information with law enforcement, Spreadly will make reasonable efforts to notify Customer, unless such notification would impede or jeopardize an ongoing investigation or if prohibited by court order. Further, Spreadly reserves the right to not store or submit any transaction Customer submits that Spreadly believes is in violation of this Agreement or applicable Law or otherwise exposes Spreadly or other Spreadly users to harm, including but not limited to, fraud, illegal, and other criminal acts.

2.3. Limitations and Restrictions. Customer will use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent unauthorized third-party access to or use of the Platform. Customer must not do any of the following:

- 2.3.1. modify, adapt, translate or create derivative works or improvements of the Platform or any portion thereof;
- 2.3.2. rent, lease, lend, sell, sublicense, assign, distribute, publish, transfer or otherwise make available the Platform or any features or functionality of the Platform to any unauthorized person or entity for any reason, including as part of any time-sharing, service bureau or software as a service arrangement;
- 2.3.3. reverse engineer, disassemble, decompile, decode, adapt or otherwise attempt to derive, gain access to or discover the source code of the Platform or the underlying structure, ideas, know-how, algorithms or methodology relevant to the Platform;
- 2.3.4. input, upload, transmit or otherwise provide to or through the Platform any information or materials that are unlawful or injurious, or contain, transmit or activate any Malicious Code;
- 2.3.5. attempt to gain unauthorized access to, damage, destroy, disrupt, disable, impair, interfere with or otherwise impede or harm in any manner the Platform;
- 2.3.6. access or use the Platform in any way that infringes, misappropriates or otherwise violates any intellectual property right, privacy right or other right of any third party, or that violates any applicable Law; or
- 2.3.7. access or use the Platform for purposes of (A) benchmarking or competitive analysis, (B) developing, producing, marketing, distributing, licensing or selling any product or service that may compete with the Platform, or (C) disclosing to Spreedly's competitors, for any purpose, otherwise non-public information about the Platform.

2.4. Changes to the Platform. Spreedly may make any changes to the Platform (including, without limitation, the design, look and feel, functionality, content, material, information and/or services provided via the Platform) that Spreedly deems necessary or useful to improve the Platform or for any other reason, from time-to-time in Spreedly's sole discretion, and without notice to Customer; provided, however, that Spreedly will not make any such changes that will materially adversely affect its features or functionality available to Customer during the Term. Such changes may include upgrades, bug fixes, patches and other error corrections (collectively, including related Documentation changes, "Updates"). In the event that it is known that an Update will negatively impact Customer's use of the Platform, Spreedly will provide sixty (60) days notice in advance of such Update. All Updates will be deemed a part of the Platform governed by all the provisions of this Agreement pertaining thereto. Spreedly may periodically offer new features, enhancements, and/or optional product upgrades to the Platform at an additional cost ("Upgrades"). If Customer chooses to utilize such Upgrades, any new charges incurred in connection therewith must be agreed to in a new Order Form.

2.5. Subcontractors. Spreedly may, in Spreedly's discretion, engage subcontractors to aid Spreedly in providing the Platform and performing Spreedly's obligations under this Agreement, but Spreedly will remain liable to Customer for any act or omission by such subcontractors that would be a breach or violation of this Agreement. Spreedly may use Amazon Web Services, Microsoft Azure, Google Cloud Platform and/or such other reputable hosting provider that implements and maintains commercially reasonable security programs, policies, procedures, controls and technologies (each a "Reputable Hosting Services Provider") for cloud-based infrastructure and hosting and storage services for the Platform, and such Reputable Hosting Services Provider will host and store certain portions of Customer Data that is processed through the Platform. Customer hereby specifically approves and consents to Spreedly's use of a Reputable Hosting Services Provider in the manner described and agrees that the Reputable Hosting Services Provider's security programs, policies, procedures, controls and technologies are consistent with industry best practices and comply with the requirements of the Data Security Policy.

2.6. Beta Services. Spreedly may offer Customer access to beta services that are being provided prior to general release ("Beta Services"). Beta Services will be clearly designated as beta, pilot, limited release, developer preview, non-production, evaluation or by a similar description. Beta Services are for evaluation purposes and not for production use, are not considered "services" under this Agreement, are not supported, and may be subject to additional terms. Spreedly may discontinue Beta Services at any time in its sole discretion and may never make them generally available. ALL BETA SERVICES ARE PROVIDED "AS-IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE," WITHOUT WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND. Spreedly will have no liability for any harm or damage arising out of or in connection with the use of Beta Services. If Customer provides feedback ("Feedback") about the Beta Services, Spreedly will be free to use, disclose, reproduce, distribute, implement or otherwise commercialize all Feedback provided by Customer without obligation or restriction. For the Beta Services only, the terms of this Section 2.6 supersede any conflicting terms and conditions in the Agreement, but only to the extent necessary to resolve conflict.

2.7. Suspension of Services and Platform Access. Spreedly may suspend or deny Customer's access to or use of all or any part of the Platform and Support Services, without any liability to Customer or others, if (i) Spreedly is required to do so by Law or court order; or (ii) Customer has (A) failed to comply with Section 2.2 or 2.3), or (B) otherwise breached a material term of this Agreement and have failed to cure such breach within thirty (30) days after Spreedly provides written notice thereof to Customer. Spreedly's remedies in this Section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, Spreedly's termination rights in Section 10.

2.8. Customer Data Export; Customer Data Retention. Customer may elect at any time to perform an automatic export of any Card Data and/or other Customer Data to a third-party endpoint for which Spreedly supports third-party vaulting as set forth at Spreedly's website (currently: <https://docs.spreedly.com/guides/third-party-vaulting>). For any endpoint for which automatic export is not supported, Customer may request that Spreedly perform one (1) free-of-charge manual export during the Term, of any Card Data or other credit card or user information associated with Customer's account to a recipient designated by Customer, provided that the recipient has proven that it is PCI-DSS compliant, and the transfer is not in violation of any applicable Laws. If Customer requires additional manual exports during the Term, each additional manual export will incur an export charge at agreed upon rates. Spreedly reserves the right to delete all of Customer's Card Data and any other Customer Data thirty (30) days after the effective date of termination of this Agreement (the "Data Transfer Window"). If Customer requires additional time to arrange the export of its Card Data to a PCI-DSS compliant third party, it may extend the Data Transfer Window for additional thirty (30) day periods by providing notice to Spreedly and continuing to pay a prorated portion of the applicable Fees set forth in the Order Forms.

2.9. Platform API Connections: Maintenance; Updates; Functions. Spreedly will regularly maintain its third-party Platform API connections with its top transacting payment gateways and payment service providers as measured by volume. Spreedly's partner relationship teams work in parallel with the dedicated product and engineering teams to determine when maintenance and updates may be required. If an update is required, Spreedly will engage with the appropriate parties to build the integration and ensure testing is complete.

Additionally, Spreedly will make commercially reasonable efforts to enable major credit card functions (e.g., Purchase, Auth, Capture, Void, Verify, Refund, etc. as defined in the Documentation) and value add features (e.g., 3DS, network tokenization, and local payment methods) with its top transacting payment gateways and payment service providers as measured by volume.

Customer may request Spreedly perform maintenance or updates to third party Platform API connections that are low volume or that are not regularly maintained by Spreedly, and Spreedly may, in its sole discretion, charge for any Professional Services required in complying with such requests.

3. Support Services and Availability.

3.1. Support Services. During the Term, so long as Customer complies with this Agreement, Spreedly will provide customer support services to Customer in accordance with Spreedly's Support Service Terms posted at Spreedly's website (currently: <https://www.spreedly.com/support-services-terms>) at the support level specified on the Order Form (the "Support Services").

3.2. Availability. During the Term, so long as Customer complies with this Agreement, Spreedly will make the Platform available for access and use by Customer in accordance with Spreedly's Availability Commitments posted at Spreedly's website (currently: <https://www.spreedly.com/support-services-terms>) corresponding to the support level specified on the Order Form. SPREEDLY'S SOLE OBLIGATION AND LIABILITY TO CUSTOMER FOR ANY FAILURE TO MEET THE AVAILABILITY COMMITMENTS ARE THE SERVICE CREDITS SPECIFIED IN THE SUPPORT SERVICE TERMS REFERENCED ABOVE.

4. Professional Services. If Customer and Spreedly execute a Statement of Work for Professional Services, the following additional terms will apply:

4.1. Scope of Services; Statements of Work. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, Spreedly will perform the training, consulting, advisory, implementation, configuration, customization and/or other professional services (the "Professional Services") that are mutually agreed upon and described in one or more Statements of Work.

4.2. Personnel. Spreedly reserves the right to determine which of Spreedly's personnel or subcontractors will be assigned to perform Professional Services, and to replace or reassign such personnel during the Term.

4.3. Customer Responsibilities. In connection with Spreedly's provision of the Professional Services, Customer will: (i) reasonably cooperate with Spreedly in all matters relating to the performance of the Professional Services; (ii) respond promptly to Spreedly's requests to provide direction, information, approvals, authorizations or decisions that are reasonably necessary for Spreedly to perform the Professional Services in accordance with the Statement of Work; (iii) provide the content, data and materials that Customer is required to provide as described in the Statement of Work; and (iv) perform those additional tasks and assume those additional responsibilities specified in the applicable Statement of Work ("Customer Responsibilities"). Customer understands and agrees that Spreedly's performance is dependent on Customer's timely and effective satisfaction of Customer Responsibilities.

4.4. Securing Rights. Customer will be solely responsible for securing all rights, consents, licenses or approvals to grant Spreedly access to or use of any third-party data, materials, software or technology necessary for Spreedly's performance of the Professional Services, other than with respect to any third-party materials included as part of the Platform or that Spreedly has otherwise agreed to provide as described in the Statement of Work. Spreedly will abide by the terms and conditions of such permissions, licenses or approvals, provided that Customer has provided to Spreedly written copies of such permissions, licenses or approvals prior to the commencement of the applicable Professional Services.

4.5. Ownership of Work Product. Unless Customer and Spreedly have otherwise expressly provided in a Statement of Work (including by making a specific reference to this Section 4.5), all Deliverables (as defined below) will be deemed to be a part of the Platform hereunder and therefore owned by Spreedly (pursuant to Section 8.1 below) and provided to Customer (pursuant to Section 2.1 above) under the terms of this Agreement. "Deliverables" means all results and proceeds of the Professional Services provided by Spreedly.

4.6. Acceptance of Deliverables. If Customer reasonably believes that any final Deliverable provided by Spreedly as part of Professional Services fails to conform in some material respect to the specifications set forth in the applicable Statement of Work, then Customer will provide Spreedly with a detailed written description of each alleged non-conformance within ten (10) business days after receipt of such Deliverable. In such an event, Spreedly will either confirm the non-conformance and commence work on making corrections to such Deliverable or inform Customer that Spreedly does not agree that a non-conformance exists and provide Customer with a written explanation for Spreedly's conclusion. If Spreedly does not agree that a non-conformance exists, Customer and Spreedly agree to work together in good faith to try to resolve the matter. If Spreedly does not receive a non-conformance notice from Customer within ten (10) business 90 days after receipt of such Deliverable, such Deliverable will be deemed to be accepted under this Agreement. Each Party will provide reasonable assistance and information to one another to assist in resolving any Deliverable non-conformance issues.

5. Confidentiality.

5.1. Confidential Information. In connection with this Agreement, each Party (as the "Disclosing Party") may disclose or make available its Confidential Information to the other Party (as the "Receiving Party"). "Confidential Information" means all proprietary, non-public information or materials of any character, whether written, electronic, verbal or otherwise furnished by the Disclosing Party or its directors, officers, employees, consultants, contractors, agents or advisors that (i) is marked or otherwise identified as "Confidential" and/or "Proprietary" (or, if disclosed verbally, is reduced to writing and marked or identified as "Confidential" and/or "Proprietary" and forwarded to the other Party within thirty (30) days of oral disclosure) or (ii) should reasonably be understood from all the relevant circumstances to be of confidential or of a proprietary nature, including but not limited to, all (A) trade secrets, (B) financial information and pricing, (C) technical information, such as research, development procedures, algorithms, data, designs, and know-how, (D) individually identifiable personal information, (E) business and operational information, such as planning, marketing interests, pricing and products, and (F) customer lists and all related information. For avoidance of doubt, all non-public information related to the Platform (including without limitation, pricing information (e.g., price quotes) and the source code for the Platform and the methods, algorithms, structure and logic, technical infrastructure, techniques and processes used by Spreedly in developing, producing, marketing and/or providing the Platform) are Spreedly's Confidential Information, Customer Data is Customer's Confidential Information, and the terms of this Agreement and any Order Form or Statement of Work are the Confidential Information of both Parties.

5.2. Exclusions. Confidential Information of a Disclosing Party does not include information that the Receiving Party can demonstrate by written or other documentary records: (i) was rightfully known to the Receiving Party without restriction on use or disclosure prior to such information being disclosed or made available to the Receiving Party in connection with this Agreement; (ii) was or becomes generally known by the public other than by the Receiving Party's or any of its Representatives' (as defined in Section 5.3 below) noncompliance with this Agreement; (iii) was or is received by the Receiving Party on a non-confidential basis from a third party that was not or is not, at the time of such receipt, under any obligation to maintain its confidentiality; (iv) was or is independently developed by the Receiving Party without reliance upon any Confidential Information; or (v) to the extent it was or is independently developed by the Receiving Party with use of or reliance upon Residual Information (as defined below).

5.3. Protections. As a condition to being provided with any disclosure of or access to Confidential Information, the Receiving Party will: (i) not use the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information other than as necessary to exercise its rights or perform its obligations under and in accordance with this Agreement; (ii) except as may be permitted under the terms and conditions of Section 5.4 below, not disclose or permit access to such Confidential Information other than to its affiliates and its affiliates' respective officers, employees, directors, attorneys, accountants, professional advisors, contractors, subcontractors, agents and/or consultants (collectively, its "Representatives") who: (x) need to know such Confidential Information for purposes of the Receiving Party's exercise of its rights or performance of its obligations under and in accordance with this Agreement; and (y) have been informed of the confidential nature of the Confidential Information and the Receiving Party's obligations under this Agreement; (iii) safeguard the Confidential Information from unauthorized use, access or disclosure using at least the degree of care it uses to protect its own Confidential Information and in no event less than a reasonable degree of care; and (iv) promptly notify the Disclosing Party of any unauthorized use or disclosure of Confidential Information of which it becomes aware and take all reasonable steps to prevent further unauthorized use or disclosure. Each Party will be liable for any breach of this Agreement by its Representatives to whom it discloses Confidential Information.

5.4. Legally Required Disclosures. If a Receiving Party or one of its Representatives is required by any Law, rule or order of any governmental body or agency, or as otherwise necessary to maintain or comply with any regulatory certifications or requirements, to disclose any Confidential Information, such Receiving Party (i) will, to the extent legally permissible, give the Disclosing Party prompt notice of such request so that the Disclosing Party may (at its own expense) seek an appropriate protective remedy, and (ii) will, and will cause its Representatives to, cooperate with the Disclosing Party (at the Disclosing Party's expense) in the Disclosing Party's efforts to obtain any such protective remedy. In the event that the Disclosing Party is unable to obtain such a protective remedy, the Receiving Party or its Representatives, as applicable, will (A) furnish only that portion of the Confidential Information that the Receiving Party or its Representatives is required to disclose in the opinion of the Receiving Party's or its Representatives' outside counsel, (B) exercise reasonable efforts to assist the Disclosing Party (at the Disclosing Party's expense) in obtaining assurances that confidential treatment will be accorded the Confidential Information so required to be disclosed, and (C) give notice to the Disclosing Party of the information to be disclosed as far in advance of disclosure of the same as is reasonably possible and legally permissible.

5.5. Ownership. All Confidential Information will remain at all times the sole and exclusive property of the Disclosing Party and the Receiving Party will not acquire any rights in or to such Confidential Information by reason of its disclosure to the Receiving Party hereunder.

6. Data Protection and Privacy.

6.1. Data Security. During the Term, Spreadly will implement safeguards to protect against anticipated threats or hazards to the security, confidentiality or integrity of Customer Data in accordance with Spreadly's Data Security Policy described in Schedule B, as amended from time-to-time (the "Data Security Policy") and applicable law.

6.2. Data Privacy. In the event that the Parties enter into an Order Form and/or SOW whereby Spreadly collects, accesses, processes, stores, transfers, transmits, uses, discloses or otherwise handles any Customer Data that includes "personal information," "personal data" or "personally identifiable information" as defined under applicable law, the Parties will comply with the Data Processing Addendum posted at Spreadly's website (currently: <https://www.spreadly.com/gdpr>) which is hereby incorporated into this Agreement by reference.

7. Fees and Payment.

7.1. Fees. Customer will pay to Spreadly the fees and charges described in each Order Form and Statement of Work entered into by Customer and Spreadly (the "Fees") in accordance with such Order Form or Statement of Work and this Section 7. All purchases are final, all payment obligations are non-cancelable and (except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement or in the applicable Order Form or Statement of Work) all Fees once paid are non-refundable.

7.2. Taxes. If Spreadly is required by law to pay, withhold or deduct any taxes, levies, imports, duties, charges, fees or other amounts from Customer's payments, such amounts will be invoiced to and paid by Customer in addition to the Fees, unless Customer provides Spreadly with a valid exemption certificate from the corresponding authority. If Customer is required by law to withhold or deduct any portion of the Fees due to Spreadly (a "Customer Withholding"), Spreadly will be entitled to "gross-up" the applicable Fees in an amount equal to the Customer Withholding so that Spreadly receives the same Fees it would have received but for the withheld amounts required by law. Customer remains liable for the payment of all such Customer Withholdings, however designated, that are levied or based on Customer's use of the Platform.

7.3. Payment. Customer will make all payments in US dollars. Unless otherwise set forth in an applicable Order Form or Statement of Work, all invoiced amounts are due net thirty (30) days from the invoice date. Customer is responsible for providing complete and accurate billing and contact information and notifying Spreadly of any changes to that information.

7.4. Late Payment. If Customer fails to make any undisputed payment when due then, in addition to all other remedies that may be available to Spreedly (including Spreedly's rights under Section 2.7 and Section 9.3), Spreedly may charge interest on the past due amount at the rate of 1.5% per month calculated daily and compounded monthly or, if lower, the highest rate permitted under applicable law.

8. Ownership and Intellectual Property Rights.

8.1. Platform and Documentation. Customer acknowledges and agrees that Spreedly owns all right, title and interest in and to the Platform and the Documentation, including all Intellectual Property Rights therein and all derivative works thereof. Spreedly is not granting Customer any right, license or authorization with respect to the Platform or the Documentation, except as specifically provided in Section 2.1 above (and subject to the limitations and restrictions in Section 2.3 above). Spreedly reserves all rights not expressly granted to Customer in this Agreement.

8.2. Customer Data. As between Customer and Spreedly, Customer is and will remain the sole and exclusive owner of all right, title and interest in and to all Customer Data, including all Intellectual Property Rights therein, subject to the rights Customer grants to Spreedly in this Section 8. During the Term, Customer hereby grants to Spreedly and its subcontractors all such rights and permissions in or relating to Customer Data as are necessary to: (i) provide the Platform to Customer; and (ii) enforce this Agreement and exercise Spreedly's rights and perform Spreedly's obligations under this Agreement.

8.3. Improvements. To the extent Spreedly makes any improvements to the Platform based upon Customer's use of the Platform, Customer agrees that Spreedly exclusively owns all right, title and interest in and to such improvements, including all related Intellectual Property Rights.

8.4. Usage Data. Customer acknowledges and agrees that Spreedly may collect metadata and other statistical information regarding Customer's use of and the performance of the Platform ("Usage Data"). Usage Data does not contain and is not derived from Customer Data. Customer agrees that Spreedly may use Usage Data in connection with providing Support Services to Customer and for Spreedly's internal business purposes (such as monitoring, enhancing and improving the Platform), and that Spreedly may publish and share with third parties aggregated Usage Data that cannot, by itself or with other data, directly or indirectly, identify or reidentify Customer, Customer's customers or clients or any other individual or entity.

8.5. Publicity Rights. Neither party may use the other party's name or mark in any advertising, written sales promotion, press releases and/or other publicity matters relating to this Agreement without the other party's prior written consent.

9. Term and Termination.

9.1. Term. Unless otherwise terminated in accordance with this Agreement, the initial term of this Agreement will be for the duration specified in the Initial Order Form (the "Initial Term"). Thereafter, this Agreement will automatically renew for successive renewal terms (each, a "Renewal Term" and, together with the Initial Term, the "Term"), subject to, and in accordance with, the terms of the Initial Order Form. Unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by the Parties, the term of each additional Order Form will be the same as the term set forth in the Initial Order Form.

9.2. Termination. In addition to any other termination rights described in this Agreement, this Agreement may be terminated at any time by either Party, effective when that Party provides written notice to the other Party: (i) at any time that there are no active and outstanding Order Forms and Statements of Work; or (ii) if the other Party materially breaches the terms of this Agreement (including, for avoidance of doubt, the terms of any Order Form or Statement of Work incorporated herein) and such breach remains uncured thirty (30) days after the non-breaching Party provides the breaching Party with written notice regarding such breach.

9.3. Effect of Termination. The exercise of any right of termination under this Agreement will not affect any rights of either Party (including rights to payment or reimbursement) that have accrued prior to the effective date of termination and will be without prejudice to any other legal or equitable remedies to which a Party may be entitled. If this Agreement is terminated or expires, then: (i) Spreedly will immediately discontinue Customer's access to the Platform; (ii) Customer will complete all pending transactions and stop accepting new transactions through the Platform; (iii) Customer will discontinue use of any Spreedly trademarks and immediately remove any Spreedly references and logos from Customer's website; and (iv) each Party will promptly return to the other or, if so directed by the other Party, destroy all originals and copies of any Confidential Information of the other Party (including all notes, records and materials developed therefrom).

9.4. Surviving Terms. Sections 1 (Definitions), 5 (Confidentiality), 7 (Fees and Payment), 8 (Ownership and Intellectual Property Rights), 9.3 (Effect of Termination), 10.c (Disclaimer of Warranties), 11 (Indemnification), 13 (Limitations of Liability), 14 (Miscellaneous) and this Section 9.4 will survive any expiration or termination of this Agreement along with any provision which by its nature or express terms should survive termination.

10. Representations and Warranties.

10.1. Mutual Representations. The Parties each represent and warrant as applicable that: (i) it is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing as a corporation or other entity under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or other organization; (ii) it has the full right, power and authority to enter into and perform its obligations under this Agreement; (iii) the execution of an Order Form by its representative has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate or organizational action of Customer; and (iv) when executed and delivered by both Parties, the Agreement will constitute the legal, valid and binding obligation of Customer, enforceable against Customer in accordance with its terms

10.2. Customer Representations. Customer represents and warrants that: (i) it will not use the Platform, directly or indirectly, for any fraudulent undertaking or in any manner so as to interfere with the use of the Platform; (ii) Customer's use of the Platform and its collection and use of all of Customer Data (including Customer's processing of Customer Data and/or any card authorization, credit, ticket only, capture or settlement request, decline transaction, or other related transaction, completed or submitted under Customer's account) will comply with (A) all applicable Laws, (B) the terms of service of the payment gateways, merchant service providers and/or API endpoints Customer connects with on the Platform; (C) the operating rules, bylaws, schedules, supplements and addenda, manuals, instructions, releases, specifications and other requirements, as may be amended from time-to-time, of any of the payment networks including Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover Financial Services, and any affiliates thereof or any other payment network applicable to this Agreement; (D) PCI-DSS and PA-DSS, as applicable; and (E) any regulatory body or agency having jurisdiction over the subject matter thereof; (iii) Customer either owns, or has all rights, permissions and consents that are necessary to process, and to permit Spreedly, its subcontractors and the Platform to process as contemplated in this Agreement, all Customer Data and the credit card transaction related thereto; (iv) Spreedly's and its subcontractors' access to and use of Customer Data (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Card Data and all personal data included with Customer Data) as contemplated by this Agreement does not and will not violate any applicable Law or infringe, misappropriate or otherwise violate any Intellectual Property Right, privacy right or other right of any third party.

10.3. Spreedly Representations. Spreedly represents and warrants that:

- 10.3.1. it will comply with all applicable laws including Data Privacy Laws in addition to applicable rules and guidelines regarding service providers, third-party agents and processors as issued by the Card Associations (the "Card Rules"), as updated from time to time, and including Card Rules applicable to U.S. and international credit card transactions;
- 10.3.2. it will (A) be compliant with PCI-DSS and all other applicable standards and guidelines issued by the PCI Security Standards Council, LLC, (the "Council"); (B) validate its PCI-DSS compliance as required by the applicable Card Rules; (C) undergo annual PCI-DSS assessments by a Qualified Security Assessor; and (D) notify Customer if it becomes aware that it is no longer in compliance with PCI-DSS. Spreedly will provide proof of its PCI-DSS compliance to Customer upon request and evidence of its successful completion of its annual assessments on its website (currently available at <https://www.spreedly.com/pci>);
- 10.3.3. the Platform will perform in all material respects in accordance with the functional specifications set forth in the applicable Documentation. If Spreedly breaches this warranty, as Spreedly's sole obligation and liability to Customer and Customer's sole and exclusive remedy, Spreedly will, at its option: (a) promptly correct any portion of the Platform that fails to meet this warranty; (b) provide Customer with a reasonable procedure to circumvent the nonconformity; or (c) refund to Customer on a pro rata basis the share of any Fees prepaid by Customer for the portion of the applicable Term in which the Platform is non-conforming;
- 10.3.4. it will perform all Professional Services in a professional and workmanlike manner. If Spreedly breaches this warranty, as Spreedly's sole obligation and liability to Customer and Customer's sole and exclusive remedy, Spreedly will promptly re-perform the non-conforming Services at no additional cost to Customer.
- 10.3.5. the Platform and any component thereof including the software contains no Malicious Code.

10.4. Disclaimer of Warranties. EXCEPT FOR THE EXPRESS LIMITED WARRANTIES SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, THE PLATFORM AND ALL SERVICES PROVIDED BY SPREEDLY HEREUNDER ARE PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE" BASIS AND SPREEDLY HEREBY DISCLAIMS ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, STATUTORY OR OTHER, INCLUDING ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE AND NON-INFRINGEMENT. WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, NEITHER SPREEDLY NOR ANYONE ASSOCIATED WITH SPREEDLY, INC. REPRESENTS OR WARRANTS THAT THE PLATFORM WILL BE RELIABLE, ERROR-FREE OR UNINTERRUPTED, THAT DEFECTS WILL BE CORRECTED OR THAT THE PLATFORM WILL OTHERWISE MEET CUSTOMER'S NEEDS OR EXPECTATIONS.

11. Indemnification.

11.1. Spreadly Indemnification. Spreadly will defend Customer from and against any Claims brought by a third party, and will indemnify and hold Customer harmless from any Losses associated with such third party Claims arising from: (i) an allegation that the Platform (excluding Customer Data) infringes any U.S. patent, copyright or trademark of such third party, or misappropriate the trade secret of such third party (each, an "Infringement Claim"); (ii) a "Data Incident" that is caused by Spreadly's material breach of the Data Security Policy (as defined in Schedule B attached hereto); (iii) Spreadly's failure to remain compliant with PCI-DSS; (iv) a breach of Section 5 (Confidentiality) or (v) any applicable Law

11.2. Customer Indemnification. Customer will defend Spreadly and Spreadly's subcontractors and personnel from and against any Claims brought by a third party, and Customer will indemnify and hold Spreadly and Spreadly's subcontractors and personnel harmless from any Losses associated with such third party Claims, in each case to the extent the same are based on (i) Customer's use of the Platform in material breach of the terms of this Agreement and/or any applicable Law, and/or (ii) Customer's breach of Section 5 (Confidentiality).

11.3. Indemnification Process. Each Party will promptly notify the other Party in writing (email is sufficient) of any Claim for which such Party believes it is entitled to be indemnified pursuant to Section 11.1 or 11.2. The Party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnitee") will cooperate with the other Party (the "Indemnitor") at the Indemnitor's sole cost and expense. The Indemnitor will promptly assume control of the defense and investigation of such Claim and will employ counsel of its choice to handle and defend the same, at the Indemnitor's sole cost and expense. The Indemnitee's failure to perform any obligations under this Section 11.3 will not relieve the Indemnitor of its obligations under this Section 11 except to the extent that the Indemnitor can demonstrate that it has been materially prejudiced as a result of such failure. The Indemnitee may participate in and observe the proceedings at its own cost and expense with counsel of its own choosing. The Indemnitor will not enter into any settlement that imposes any liability or obligation on the Indemnitee without the Indemnitee's prior written consent.

11.4. Additional Terms for Infringement Claims.

11.4.1. Spreadly will have no liability or obligation with respect to any Infringement Claim to the extent based upon or arising out of: (A) access to or use of the Platform in combination with any hardware, system, software, network or other materials or service not provided or otherwise approved by Spreadly in the Platform Documentation; (B) use of the Service in the practice of a process or system other than that for which it was intended; or (C) any action taken by Customer relating to use of the Platform that is outside the scope of the rights and authorizations granted or otherwise in breach of this Agreement and/or any applicable Order Form.

11.4.2. If the Platform is, or in Spreadly's opinion is likely to be, the subject of an Infringement Claim, or if Customer's use of the Platform is enjoined or threatened to be enjoined, Spreadly may, at Spreadly's option and Spreadly's sole cost and expense: (A) obtain the right for Customer to continue to use the allegedly infringing Platform as contemplated by this Agreement, (B) modify or replace the allegedly infringing Platform to make the Platform (as so modified or replaced) non-infringing, or (C) if Spreadly determine the remedies in clauses (A) and (B) are not commercially reasonable, then Spreadly may terminate the applicable Order Form upon written notice and without any liability to Customer and Spreadly will promptly refund to Customer on a pro rata basis the share of any Fees prepaid by Customer for the future portion of the applicable Term that would have remained but for such termination.

11.4.3. THIS SECTION 11 SETS FORTH CUSTOMER'S EXCLUSIVE REMEDIES, AND SPREEDLY'S SOLE OBLIGATION AND LIABILITY TO CUSTOMER OR ANY OTHER PERSON OR ENTITY, FOR ANY ACTUAL, THREATENED OR ALLEGED CLAIMS THAT THE PLATFORM (INCLUDING CUSTOMER'S USE THEREOF) INFRINGES, MISAPPROPRIATES OR OTHERWISE VIOLATES ANY INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF ANY THIRD PARTY.

12. Insurance. During the Term, Spreadly will maintain (i) commercial general liability insurance with at least $1,000,000 per occurrence and (ii) "errors and omission" (tech and cyber coverage) insurance in an amount not less than $5,000,000. Upon Customer's request, Spreadly will provide Customer with a certificate of insurance evidencing the same.

13. Limitation of Liability. IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOST PROFITS, LOSS OF ANTICIPATED SAVINGS, WASTED EXPENDITURE, LOSS OF BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES, REPUTATION OR GOODWILL, LOSS OR CORRUPTION OF DATA, OR ANY INDIRECT, EXEMPLARY, PUNITIVE, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL

OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING LOSS OF BUSINESS PROFITS) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, HOWEVER CAUSED AND ON ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY. THE TOTAL AND CUMULATIVE LIABILITY OF A PARTY ARISING UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT WILL NOT EXCEED THE GREATER OF (I) ONE MILLION DOLLARS ($1,000,000) OR (II) FIVE (5) TIMES THE AMOUNT OF FEES PAID TO SPREADLY BY CUSTOMER DURING THE TWELVE-MONTH PERIOD IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING SUCH CLAIM, PROVIDED HOWEVER, THAT THIS LIMIT ON LIABILITY WILL NOT APPLY TO THE EXTENT THE LIABILITY IS A DIRECT RESULT OF THE FRAUDULENT, CRIMINAL OR GROSSLY NEGLIGENT OR MORE CULPABLE ACTS OR OMISSIONS OF THAT PARTY, FRAUDULENT REPRESENTATION, DEATH OR PERSONAL INJURY CAUSED BY NEGLIGENCE OR ANY MATTER FOR WHICH IT WOULD BE UNLAWFUL FOR THE PARTIES TO EXCLUDE LIABILITY. THE LIMITATIONS IN THIS SECTION WILL APPLY EVEN IF A PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES AND NOTWITHSTANDING ANY FAILURE OF ESSENTIAL PURPOSE OF ANY LIMITED REMEDY.

14. Miscellaneous.

14.1. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and each Order Form and Statement of Work constitute the entire agreement, and supersede all prior negotiations, understandings or agreements (oral or written), between the Parties regarding the subject matter of this Agreement (and all past dealing or industry custom).

14.2. Amendment, Severability and Waiver. No change, consent or waiver under this Agreement will be effective unless in writing and signed by the Party against which enforcement is sought. Any delay or failure of either Party to enforce its rights, powers or privileges under this Agreement, at any time or for any period, will not be construed as a waiver of such rights, powers and privileges, and the exercise of one right or remedy will not be deemed a waiver of any other right or remedy. If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be illegal or unenforceable, that provision will be limited or eliminated to the minimum extent necessary so that this Agreement will otherwise remain in full force and effect and enforceable.

14.3. Governing Law and Venue. This Agreement will be deemed to have been made in and will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to its conflicts of law provisions. The sole jurisdiction and venue for actions related to this Agreement will be the state or federal courts located in Dover County, Delaware, and both Parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts with respect to any such action.

14.4. Notices. All notices, instructions, requests, authorizations, consents, demands and other communications hereunder will be in writing and will be delivered by one of the following means, with notice deemed given as indicated in parentheses: (i) by personal delivery (when actually delivered); (ii) by overnight courier (upon written verification of receipt); (iii) by email (upon confirmation of receipt); or (iv) by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested (upon verification of receipt). In each case, such notices will be addressed to a Party at such Party's address set forth in the Initial Order Form (or such other address as updated by such Party from time-to-time by giving notice to the other Party in the manner set forth in this Section 14.4).

14.5. Assignment. Neither Party may assign, delegate or otherwise transfer its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other Party; provided that either Party may assign this Agreement in its entirety without the other Party's consent to an entity that acquires all or substantially all of the business or assets of such Party to which this Agreement pertains, whether by merger, reorganization, acquisition, sale or otherwise. This Agreement will be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the successors and permitted assigns of the Parties.

14.6. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or will confer on any other person or entity any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

14.7. Relationship of the Parties. The relationship between the Parties is that of independent contractors. Nothing contained in this Agreement will be construed as creating any agency, partnership, joint venture or other form of joint enterprise, employment or fiduciary relationship between the Parties, and neither Party will have authority to contract for or bind the other Party in any manner whatsoever.

14.8. Force Majeure. Neither Party will be liable for any delays or non-performance of its obligations arising out of actions or decrees of governmental authorities, criminal acts of third parties, epidemics and/or pandemics as designated by governing authorities, earthquakes, flood, and other natural disasters, war, terrorism, acts of God, or fire, or other similar causes not within such Party's reasonable control (each, a "Force Majeure Event"). In the event of any failure or delay caused by a Force Majeure Event, the affected Party will give prompt written notice to the other Party stating the period of time the occurrence is expected to continue and use commercially reasonable efforts to end the failure or delay and minimize the effects of such Force Majeure Event. Either Party may terminate this Agreement if a Force Majeure Event affecting the other Party continues substantially uninterrupted for a period of thirty (30) days or more.

14.9. Equitable Remedies. Each Party acknowledges and agrees that a breach or threatened breach by such Party of any of its obligations under Section 2.c (Limitations and Restrictions), Section 5 (Confidentiality) or Section 8 (Intellectual Property Rights) of this Agreement would cause the other Party irreparable harm for which monetary damages would not be an adequate remedy and that, in the event of such breach or threatened breach, the other Party will be entitled to equitable relief, including in a restraining order, an injunction, specific performance and any other relief that may be available from any court of competent jurisdiction, without any requirement to post a bond or other security, or to prove actual damages or that monetary damages are not an adequate remedy. Such remedies are not exclusive and are in addition to all other remedies that may be available at law, in equity or otherwise.

14.10. Conflict in Terms. If there is a conflict between this Agreement and any Order Form or Statement of Work, the terms of such Order Form or Statement of Work will govern the provision of the Platform or the Professional Services involved; provided, however, that nothing in an Order Form or Statement of Work may modify or supersede anything in Sections 2.3 (Limitations and Restrictions), 4.5 (Ownership of Work Product), 8 (Ownership and Intellectual Property Rights), 10 (Representations and Warranties), 11 (Indemnification), 13 (Limitation of Liability), or 14 (Miscellaneous) of this Agreement unless an express cross-reference is made to the relevant provision of this Agreement in the applicable Order Form or Statement of Work and the Parties have expressly agreed in such Order Form or Statement of Work to modify or alter the relevant provision of this Agreement.

14.11. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument. Counterparts may be delivered via facsimile, electronic mail (including pdf or any electronic signature complying with the U.S. federal ESIGN Act of 2000, e.g., www.docusign.com) or other transmission method and any counterpart so delivered will be deemed to have been duly and validly delivered and be valid and effective for all purposes.

SCHEDULE B

Data Security Policy

This Data Security Policy describes Spreedly's standard information security controls and is hereby incorporated into and made a part of the Enterprise Service Agreement between the Parties. Any capitalized terms used but not defined herein will have the meaning described in the Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Agreement and this Data Security Policy, this Data Security Policy will govern with respect to the security measures in place for Customer Data.

A. Definitions.

A.1. "Data Incident" means a breach of Spreedly's security leading to the accidental, unauthorized or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure of, or access to, Customer Data. "Data Incidents" exclude unsuccessful attempts or activities that do not compromise the security of Customer Data, including unsuccessful log-in attempts, pings, port scans, denial of service attacks, and other network attacks on firewalls or networked systems.

A.2. "Security" means Spreedly's technological, physical, administrative and procedural safeguards, including without limitation, policies, procedures, guidelines, practices standards, controls, hardware, software, firmware and physical security measures, the function or purpose of which is, in whole or part, to: (a) protect the confidentiality, integrity or availability of Customer Data and the Platform; (b) prevent the unauthorized use of or unauthorized access to the Platform; or (c) prevent a breach or malicious infection of Customer Data.

B. Data Security.

B.1. Security Controls. Spreedly uses industry-accepted technological, physical, administrative, procedural safeguards, methods and products, including without limitation, policies, procedures, guidelines, practices standards, controls, hardware, software, firmware and physical security measures, the function or purpose of which is to: (a) protect the Customer Data against a Data Incident including where any processing of Customer Data involves the transmission of data over a network, and against all other unlawful forms of processing; (b) protect the confidentiality, integrity or availability of Customer Data and the Platform; and (c) prevent the unauthorized use of or unauthorized access to the Platform. Spreedly agrees that beginning on the Effective Date of the Agreement, Spreedly will employ and maintain, at a minimum, the reasonable and appropriate security controls listed in Attachment 1 attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

B.2. Data Ownership and Use Limitations. As between Spreedly and Customer, Customer is the owner of any and all Customer Data, including information provided by Customer's clients, customers or users, and Spreedly will have no ownership rights or interest in the Customer Data. Spreedly will use, process and handle Customer Data solely for the purpose of providing services under the Agreement and only per the instructions of Customer.

B.3. Data Deletion. Upon termination of the Agreement for which Spreedly is processing Customer Data, Spreedly will, upon Customer's request and subject to the limitations described in the Agreement, delete Customer Data in accordance with the procedures and timeframes specified in the Agreement.

B.4. Data Tokenization. Tokenization is a process by which the primary account number (PAN) is replaced with a surrogate value called a token. Tokenization promotes security and efficiency between the Platform and connected payment gateways. When available, Spreedly may at its sole discretion tokenize applicable Customer Data for use within the Platform.

B.5. Third-Party Audit and Compliance. Spreedly undergoes annual PCI-DSS assessments by a Qualified Security Assessor and annual SOC 2 Type 2 audits performed by an external third-party. The copy of the most recent Attestation of Compliance with PCI-DSS is available at www.spreedly.com/pci and Spreedly will provide a copy of its most recent SOC 2 Type 2 upon Customer's request.

B.6. Use of Subcontractors. Prior to utilizing any subcontractor, vendor, or other third party, Spreedly will conduct a reasonable, documented investigation of such third party to ensure the third party can comply with the privacy, confidentiality and security requirements of Customer Data that are at least as protective of Customer Data as the requirements imposed on Spreedly under this Data Security Policy.

B.7. Additional Controls. Spreedly may update the security controls in Exhibit A from time to time upon notice to Customer and implement and maintain additional security controls in the event of any material changes to the Platform, available technology or systems, provided that such changes or additional controls will not materially reduce Spreedly's obligations under this Data Security Policy. In the event of any material change (including changes due to a change in applicable Law) which requires a change to all or a significant part of the security controls, services or the Platform, the parties agree to make appropriate adjustments to the terms of the Agreement utilizing the amendment process.

C. Data Incident Response.

C.1. Response Actions. In the event of a Data Incident, Spreedly will:

- C.1.1. promptly conduct a reasonable investigation of the reasons for and circumstances of such Data Incident;
- C.1.2. take all reasonably necessary actions to prevent, contain, and mitigate the impact of, such Data Incident, and remediate such Data Incident;
- C.1.3. provide notice to Customer using the contact information identified in the most recent Order Form without undue delay and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours after the Spreedly confirms such Data Incident;
- C.1.4. promptly, and in no event more than two (2) Business Days after the Spreedly provides notice of a Data Incident provide a written report to Customer providing all relevant details concerning such Data Incident with such notice to include as it becomes available (i) a detailed description of the Data Incident, (ii) the type of data that was the subject of the Data Incident and (iii) the identity of each affected person (or, where not possible, the approximate number of data subjects and of Personal Data records concerned). Spreedly shall communicate to Customer in such notification (i) the name and contact details of Spreedly's data protection officer or other point of contact where more information can be obtained; (ii) a description of the likely consequences of the Data Incident; (iii) a description of the measures taken or proposed to be taken by Spreedly to address the Data Incident, including, where appropriate, measures to mitigate its possible adverse effects; and additionally in such notification or thereafter (iv) as soon as such information can be collected or otherwise becomes available, any other information Customer may reasonably request relating to the Data Incident;
- C.1.5. collect and preserve all evidence concerning the discovery, cause, vulnerability, remedial actions and impact related to such Data Incident; and
- C.1.6. document the incident response and remedial actions taken in detail.

C.2. Data Incident Notice. Spreedly hereby authorizes Customer, in Customer's sole and absolute discretion, to provide notice of, and reasonably required information and documents concerning, any Data Incident, to third parties, including without limitations individuals or entities that may have been impacted by the breach. Spreedly shall not release or publish any filing, communication, notice, press release, or report concerning any Data Incident in respect of personal data ("Publicity") without Customer's prior written approval unless such disclosure to Customer is prohibited by applicable law. The actions and steps described in this paragraph C.2 shall, without prejudice to Customer's right to seek any legal remedy (including the claim for reimbursement of Customer's costs of legal action against Spreedly or subprocessor) as a result of the breach, be undertaken at the expense of Spreedly and Spreedly shall pay for or reimburse Customer for all reasonable costs, losses and expenses relating to the cost of preparing and publishing Publicity.

C.3. Security Contacts. The following individuals will be the primary contacts for purposes of any coordination, communications or notices with respect to this Schedule, or any Data Incident:

Customer Security Contact:	Spreedly Security Contact:
Name: Chuck Dye	Name: Jennifer Rosario
Telephone: 206-925-7777	Telephone: 888-727-7750
Email: gettyimagesinformationsecurity@gettyimages.com	Email: security@spreedly.com

Each party will promptly notify the other if any of the foregoing contact information changes.

D. Monitoring and Reporting.

D.1. Records; Maintenance. Spreedly will, consistent with PCI-DSS and its security obligations in this Schedule and the Agreement, collect and record information, and maintain logs, planning documents, audit trails, records and reports, concerning its security, its compliance with this Schedule, Laws, Data Incidents, its storage, processing and transmission of Customer Data and the accessing and use of Customer Data on the Platform.

D.2. Customer Assessments. Upon reasonable notice to Spreedly, once per year during the Term, Customer (or any vendor selected by Customer subject to the conditions in this Schedule), may at Customer's sole cost, undertake an assessment and audit of security and Spreedly's compliance with this Schedule. The scope of such assessments and audits will be as mutually agreed between Spreedly and Customer but will not include penetration testing or any assessment that may adversely affect Spreedly's production environment.

D.3. Security Coordinator. Spreedly will assign a dedicated account manager that will act as the liaison between Customer and Spreedly to communicate compliance with this Schedule, coordinate Data Incident response and remedial action, and provide notice, reporting and other actions and duties as set forth in the Agreement. Spreedly will ensure that such individual is sufficiently trained, qualified and experienced to be able to fulfill these functions and any other related functions that might reasonably be expected to be carried out under this Schedule.

D.4. Information Requests.

D.4.1. Spreedly will cooperate with Customer in responding to any party, non-party, or government or public authority request or demand made to Customer for information related to the services under the Agreement (including metadata). In the event that such requests are served on Customer, Spreedly will provide Customer with access to such information in the format in which it is maintained in the ordinary course of business (or, on Customer's request, in any format necessary to satisfy such request).

D.4.2. In the event a request or demand by any party, non-party, or government or public authority (in the form of a subpoena, court order or otherwise) is provided to or served on Spreedly for information related to the services under the Agreement (including Customer Data and metadata), Spreedly will, to the extent it may legally do so, promptly notify Customer's security contact (as specified in subsection 3.3) in writing by electronic mail.

D.4.3. Spreedly will take all reasonable steps to assist Customer in meeting Customer's obligations under applicable Data Privacy Laws, including Customer's obligations to respond to requests by data subjects to exercise their rights with respect to personal data, adhere to data security obligations, respond to data breaches and other incidents involving personal data, conduct data protection impact assessments, and consult with supervisory authorities. Spreedly will promptly inform Customer in writing if it receives: (i) a request from a data subject concerning any personal data; or (ii) a complaint, communication, or request relating to Customer's obligations under Data Privacy Laws.

E. Cooperation and Coordination. Spreedly agrees to reasonably cooperate and coordinate with Customer concerning: (a) Customer's investigation, enforcement, monitoring, document preparation, notification requirements and reporting concerning Data Incidents and Spreedly's and Customer's compliance with Privacy Laws; and (b) any other activities or duties set forth under this Schedule for which cooperation between Customer and Spreedly may be reasonably required.

F. Survival. Spreedly's obligations and Customer's rights in this Schedule will continue as long as Spreedly, or a third party for or on Spreedly's behalf, controls, possesses, stores, transmits or processes Customer Data, including after expiration or termination of the Agreement.

G. Data Processing Agreement. At the request of the Customer, Spreedly will enter into a data processing agreement that incorporates the European Commission Standard Contractual Clauses between Controllers and Processors, in accordance with the Agreement (or any similar agreement with respect to non-European Union countries) with Customer and its Affiliates in order to allow Customer to be transferred to Spreedly and any Spreedly Affiliate. The provisions of the Data Processing Addendum located at spreedly.com/gdpr as updated from time to time are hereby incorporated by reference and will be deemed to have the same force and effect as if set forth in full herein.

Attachment 1: Specific Security Controls

Security Controls
Information Security Governance	A comprehensive information security program including a policy written in one or more readily accessible parts that: (1) contains technical, physical, administrative and procedural controls to provide for the security, confidentiality, integrity and availability of Personal Information and supplier systems; (2) protect against hazards or threats and unauthorized access or use of Personal Information; (3) controls identified risks; (4) addresses access, retention and transport of Personal Information, and (5) acceptable use. Designate an individual to manage and coordinate its written security policy and who is sufficiently trained, qualified and experienced to be able to fulfill those functions and any other functions that might reasonably be expected to be carried out by the individual as a security manager or officer.
Asset Management	Mechanisms exist to inventory system components that: (1) Accurately reflects the current system; (2) Is at the level of granularity deemed necessary for tracking and reporting; and (3) Includes organization-defined information deemed necessary to achieve effective property accountability. All corporate laptops are full disk encrypted and wiped per industry standards when decommissioned. All infrastructure equipment housing Customer Data resides within certified third-party data centers within AWS. AWS currently uses the techniques detailed in NIST 800-88 ("Guidelines for Media Sanitization") as part of the decommissioning process.
Business Continuity and Disaster Recovery	Plans and regular exercises to address business continuity of key people and processes along with disaster recovery plans for critical technology resiliency.
Change Management	Mechanisms exist to govern the technical configuration change control processes. Prior to implementing changes to the Platform Spreadly will assess the potential impact of such changes on Security and determine whether such changes are consistent with existing Security. No changes to the Platform or Security should be made which increase the risk of a Data Incidents or which would cause a breach of the Schedule.
Cloud Security	Mechanisms exist to facilitate the implementation of cloud management controls to ensure cloud instances are secure and in-line with industry practices.
Compliance	Mechanisms exist to facilitate the identification and implementation of relevant legislative statutory, regulatory, and contractual controls.
Configuration Management	Mechanisms exist to develop, document and maintain secure baseline configurations for technology platforms that are consistent with industry-accepted system hardening standards.
Continuous logging and monitoring	Mechanisms exist to ensure that all systems used to store Customer Data are logged, monitored, and reviewed regularly.
Cryptographic Protections	Spreadly will encrypt all sensitive cardholder data using appropriate encryption technology wherever it is stored or transmitted. Spreadly will use only strong, public encryption algorithms and reputable cryptographic implementations and will not employ any proprietary cryptography.
Data Classification and Handling	Mechanisms exist to facilitate the implementation of data protection controls to ensure data and assets are categorized in accordance with applicable statutory, regulatory, and contractual requirements.
Endpoint Security	Mechanisms exist to protect the confidentiality, integrity, availability and safety of endpoint devices including but not limited to (1) utilization of anti-malware technologies to detect and eradicate malicious code; (2) automatic updates of anti-malware technologies, including signature definitions; (3) ensuring that anti-malware technologies are continuously running in real-time and cannot be disabled or altered by non-privileged users, unless specifically authorized by management on a case-by-case basis for a limited time period; and (4) utilization of host-based firewall software, or a similar technology, on all information systems, where technically feasible.

HR Security	As permitted by applicable Law, conduct reasonable background checks of any Spreedly personnel that will have access to Customer Data, including Criminal Record Bureau checks. Mechanisms exist to define acceptable and unacceptable rules of behavior for the use of technologies, including consequences for unacceptable behavior.
Identification and Authentication	Mechanisms exist to (1) provide physical access controls, secure user authentication protocols, secure access control methods, and firewall protection; and (2) prevent terminated supplier personnel from accessing Personal Information and supplier systems by promptly terminating their physical and electronic access to such Personal Information. With respect to supplier systems and Personal Information: (1) maintain secure control over user IDs, passwords and other authentication identifiers; (2) maintain a secure method for selecting and assigning passwords and using authentication technologies such as token devices; (3) Restrict access to only active users/accounts; (4) block user access after multiple unsuccessful attempts to login or otherwise gain access; (5) assign unique user identifications plus passwords, which are not vendor supplied default passwords; and (6) require personnel to change passwords at regular intervals and whenever there is any indication of possible system or password compromise, and avoid re-using or cycling old passwords. Duties and areas of responsibility of supplier personnel are segregated to reduce opportunities for unauthorized or unintentional modification or misuse of supplier system or Personal Information.
Incident Response	Maintain policies and procedures for detecting, monitoring and responding to actual or reasonably suspected intrusions and Data Incidents, and encouraging reporting actual or reasonably suspected Data Incidents, including: (1) training Supplier's personnel with access to Customer Data to recognize actual or potential Data Incidents and to escalate and notify the senior management of the foregoing; (2) mandatory post-incident review of events and actions taken concerning security of Customer Data.
Malicious Code Mitigation Software	Mechanisms exist to (1) implement and maintain software for Spreedly systems that detects, protects against, removes and remedies software or computer code designed to perform an unauthorized function on, or permit unauthorized access to, an information system, including without limitation, computer viruses, Trojan horses, worms, and time or logic bombs; (2) run mitigation software on at least a weekly basis; (3) update mitigation software automatically, including without limitation, obtaining and implementing the most currently available virus signatures.

Order Form Issued: June 29, 2023Offer Valid Until: June 30, 2023

This Order Form is entered into between the entity identified above as "Customer" and Spreedly, Inc. (each a "Party" and collectively, the "Parties") as of the last day it is signed (the "Order Form Effective Date") and is subject to the Agreement (defined below) which is hereby incorporated by reference. For purposes of this Order Form, "Agreement" means the enterprise services agreement (an "ESA") currently in force between the Parties.

In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Agreement and this Order Form, this Order Form will govern. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Order Form have the meanings set forth in the Agreement or in the Documentation.

1) Order Form Term: The Initial Term of this Order Form is 24 months, after which this Order Form will automatically renew for successive 12-month periods (each, a "Renewal Term" and, together with the Initial Term, the "Term") unless either party has provided written notice of its intent to not renew not less than 60 days prior to the expiration of the then-current Initial or Renewal Term. Each 12 months of service is a "Contract Year".

2) Platform Fees: For each Contract Year, Customer will pay Spreedly an "Annual Platform Fee" which entitles Customer to the services set out in Table 1 below.

	Year 1	Year 2
Annual Platform Fee	$111,675	$111,675
Existing Spreedly Endpoints	Included	Included
PCI Compliant Card Storage	Unlimited	Unlimited
Add New Standard PMD Endpoints	Unlimited	Unlimited
API Usage Fee:	$37,500	$37,500
Included API Calls	3,750,000	3,750,000
Cost Per API Call	$0.01	$0.01
Professional Level Support	Included	Included
Total Annual Fees	$149,175	$149,175

3) API Usage Fees: In addition to the $111,675 Annual Platform Fee, Customer is pre-purchasing 7,500,000 API calls to the Spreedly Platform at a cost of $0.01 per call ("API Usage Fee") to be utilized during the Initial Term. The total API Usage Fee during the Initial Term is $75,000.

Spreedly will invoice Customer quarterly in arrears at the rate of $0.01 for any additional API call more than the initial purchase volume of 7,500,000. All pre-purchased API calls expire at the end of the Initial Term and thereafter in the applicable Contract Year in which they were purchased.

- 4) Renewal Term Fees. Except as otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing, the Annual Platform Fee and API Usage Fee will increase by 6% over the prior Contract Year in each successive Renewal Term. Advanced Dashboard pricing is subject to change at any time after the Initial Term on sixty (60) days prior notice from Spreedly.
- 5) Advanced Dashboard: Customer may enable Advanced Dashboard features for no additional fee during the first Contract Year and $15,000 per year in the second Contract Year. Advance Dashboard is paid in advance and includes custom reporting and dashboards, setting rules-based alerts, and scheduled reporting for up to five (5) users. Additional users may be added for $1,200 per month per additional user. Customer may cancel participation in the Advanced Dashboard at any time.
- 6) Support Level: Customer has selected Professional Level Support which is included in their annual contract. Spreedly will provide the technical Support Services in accordance with the applicable Support Service Terms posted at <https://www.spreedly.com/support-services-terms> at the chosen support level.
- 7) Professional Services: Spreedly will provide Professional Services to the end of creating reporting tools to generate customizable reports that align with the specifications agreed to by the Parties in a Separate Statement of Work.
- 8) One-Time Service Credit: If this Order Form is executed by Customer on or before June 30, 2023, Customer will receive a one-time service credit of $10,000 toward an upgrade to Premium Support or a Professional Services engagement (including but not limited to a gateway integration) to use at any time during the Initial Term.
- 9) Quarterly Business Review. In order to maintain the relationship between the Parties, each calendar quarter, Customer may request a business review meeting. The business review may include, but is not limited to, discussion of Spreedly's financial health, review of customers stated goals and progress to date, recommendations on optimization of transactions, payment methods, authorization success, updates from client on new vision and needs, updates from Spreedly on new products solutions and align on future goals for next quarter and beyond
- 10) Payment Schedule: Customer will pay the Total Annual Fee in equal quarterly installments, with the first installment due and payable within 45 days of the Order Form Effective Date plus a 60-day deferral period. Spreedly will invoice Customer for each subsequent quarterly payment 45 days prior to the three, six, and nine, month anniversaries of the Order Form Effective Date (a "Quarterly Payment Date"), with such amounts due and payable prior to the relevant Quarterly Payment Date. For each subsequent Renewal Term, the first quarterly payment of such Renewal Term will be invoiced 45 days prior to the anniversary of the Order Form Effective Date ("Annual Renewal Date") and will be due and payable prior to the Annual Renewal Date. Additional API Usages Fees, and fees for Advanced Vaulting and Advanced Dashboard will be invoiced monthly in arrears and are payable within 45 days of the applicable invoice date. All payments are subject to the terms prescribed of the Agreement
