Re: Acquisition of GloriaFood by Oracle

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We are pleased to inform you that Oracle has entered into an agreement with the shareholders of GlobalFood Tech S.R.L. ("GloriaFood") with respect to the acquisition by Oracle Corporation or one of its affiliates ("Oracle") of all issued and outstanding equity interests of GloriaFood (the "Acquisition").

It is our understanding that Spreedly, Inc. is party to the agreement(s) described in the attached Schedule 1 (the "Agreement(s)"). Upon the closing of the Acquisition, GloriaFood (as an Oracle subsidiary) will continue as the party under the Agreement(s). Eventually, Oracle expects to integrate the GloriaFood business and operations into its existing organization, which integration may include the assignment or transfer of agreements internally within the global Oracle organization (the "Integration"). To avoid duplicative requests for consent, we are seeking your consent now to any assignment or other transfer of the Agreement(s) to any Oracle entity in connection with the Acquisition and Integration, and waiver of any right to terminate the Agreement(s) in connection therewith. By its signature below, Spreedly, Inc. consents to the assignment of the Agreement(s) as outlined above.

If you have any questions, please contact Oliver Auerbach at +40737017876. Otherwise, please confirm your consent and agreement by signing a copy of this letter where indicated below and returning a scanned copy to Oliver Auerbach at oliver.auerbach@gloriafood.com. This letter should not be construed as an admission that any notice, consent or waiver is required under the terms of the Agreement(s). This letter may be executed in a number of counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which will constitute one and the same instrument.

Very truly yours,

Oliver Auerbach
Chief Executive Officer
GlobalFood Tech S.R.L.
